The plea bargain (also plea agreement or plea deal) is any agreement in a criminal case between the prosecutor and defendant whereby the defendant agrees to plead guilty or nolo contendere to a particular charge in return for some concession from the prosecutor.

Plea bargain - Wikipedia

Types of plea. The most common types of plea are "guilty" and "not guilty". Pleading guilty typically results in a more lenient punishment for the defendant; it is thus a type of mitigating factor in sentencing. A plea bargain is when a defendant makes a deal with the prosecution or court to plead guilty in exchange for a more lenient ...

Litigation is not a modern invention, and the medieval law courts contributed their fair share to the bulk of the surviving public records. The English legal system was a complex one, and remained in a continual, and rather chaotic, process of evolution throughout the medieval and early modern period.
